

CURTIS AND BROCK

ABOUT US

Hey there! We're Brock and Curtis, and we're thrilled to share our journey with you! Brock, originally from Michigan, made the big move to Tennessee in 2014. Curtis, a Kentucky native, joined him in 2019 after a year of long-distance dating. We tied the knot in a beautiful oceanside ceremony in October 2023, surrounded by our closest friends and family. Brock is dedicated to brightening people's mornings as a barista at a local coffee shop, while Curtis thrives as a media advisor specializing in radio and online advertising. We're all about fun, laughter, and making the most of life. We love to travel, explore new places, and savor new experiences. At home, you can find us cuddled up with our adorable dogs, Prin and Rufus. We're eagerly looking forward to making our dream of becoming parents a reality!

OUR HOME & PETS

We live in a cozy three-bedroom, two and a half bath home in a new subdivision in the heart of the city. Our lot features a spacious, fenced-in backyard that's perfect for play and relaxation. Our diverse community is warm and welcoming, and we're proud to have an excellent education system with great schools and even college options nearby. Beyond our local entertainment options, we're just an hour away from an array of exciting sporting events, concert venues, and other attractions. Our two dogs, Prin and Rufus, are part of the family and definitely spoiled! They love running around the backyard and playing with their abundance of toys. Our home is filled with love, laughter, and the joy of our furry friends.

WHAT LED US TO ADOPTION

We've always dreamed of being dads. Curtis was picking out baby names in high school, while Brock found joy in volunteering in a kindergarten class. Adoption is the beautiful way that allows us to make this dream a reality. We are certain adoption is the right path for us—a journey filled with love, laughter, and growth. We can't wait to share our love, values, and life experiences with a child. Our goal is to guide and nurture them, helping them become the best version of themselves. We're incredibly excited about this new chapter and look forward to the joys and challenges of parenthood, knowing that our hearts and home are ready to welcome a new member into our family.

OUR FAMILY AND TRADITIONS

Curtis's extended family is much larger than Brock's. While we each have one sibling, our family dynamics are quite different beyond that. Curtis has eight aunts, one uncle, and 24 first cousins, while Brock has two uncles and six first cousins. Curtis's family gathers for Wednesday night supper back home in Kentucky and enjoys an annual camping trip with his mom's side of the family. Meanwhile, Brock's family cherishes Sunday dinners at Grandma's in Michigan, where they played tennis and cooled off in the pool growing up.

Although our families live in other states, we stay connected and visit when we can. Here in Tennessee, our friends have become our extended family. Their children are our "niece" and "nephew," and we frequently gather for dinner, spreading the tradition of family meals to our found family here. We're excited to bring a child into this loving, supportive network and share these cherished traditions with them.

DEAR EXPECTANT MOTHER,

First and foremost, we want to acknowledge the immense bravery it takes to consider adoption. The decision you are making is incredibly selfless and courageous, and we admire your strength and compassion. Your decision to explore adoption speaks volumes about your character and your desire to ensure the best possible future for your baby. We cannot express enough how much we respect and appreciate the difficult choices you are making during this time.

If you choose us, we will love your baby with all of our hearts. Our home is filled with love, laughter, and warmth, and we are committed to providing a nurturing and supportive environment where they can thrive. We will cherish and celebrate every milestone, offer comfort during challenging times, and create a life filled with joy and opportunity. We have always dreamed of becoming parents and are ready to embrace all the responsibilities and rewards that come with parenthood.

Your baby will be surrounded by a loving extended family, including our friends who have become like family to us. We will ensure that your baby grows up feeling safe, cherished, and encouraged to reach for the stars. Thank you from the bottom of our hearts for considering us as potential parents for your precious baby.

With Love,

Brock & Curtis
