

Cory AND Anthony

about us

We met in Colorado while volunteering at an LGBTQ+ nonprofit event and married three years later in a beautiful destination wedding in Key Largo, Florida. Cory graduated from a Denver university with a degree in hospitality and finance management. After 15 years in leadership roles, he recently became a stay-at-home dad to care for our 3-year-old daughter and prepare for the arrival of a newborn. He's studying for his real estate license to allow for more family flexibility.

Anthony graduated from a prestigious arts conservatory in NYC and danced professionally before transitioning to luxury retail, where he works for one of the world's top fashion houses.

We adopted our daughter Charlotte on Halloween—truly the best day of our lives. She's now in school full-time and loves ballet, skiing, swimming, and all things princess. Cory enjoys hosting dinner parties, while Anthony practices yoga. Our home is full of love, creativity, and joy.

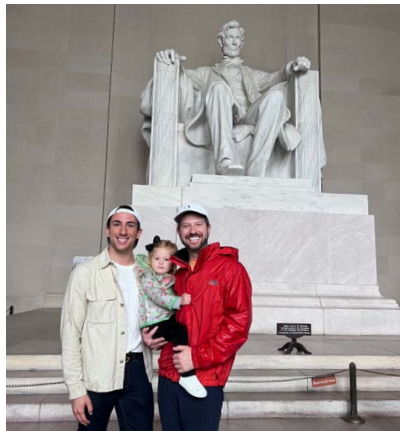

OUR HOME

We own our three-bedroom, two-bathroom home that sits on a mountainside in a small and private community. Our neighborhood has a lot of family friendly events, concerts, a ton of different parks, playgrounds, and a pool in the summer months. The school district offers so much in terms of education and opportunity, as well as chances to connect to the outdoors. We love to have family and friends visit us and entertain on the back deck, they say our home feels like a slice of paradise with the gorgeous views of the Rocky Mountains. We are fortunate to have world class skiing/snowboarding mountains during the winter and amazing campgrounds, rivers, and hiking trails during the summer.

OUR ADOPTION STORY

For us, family is everything. Having been through the adoption process once before, we feel this is the right fit for us to expand our family once again. We have so much love to give and feel like now is the perfect time to welcome a newborn into our lives. You trusting us with such a gift would be a humbling and an incredible dream come true. We are confident your child will grow up in a home full of belly laughs, exposure to the arts and culture, a lot of stamps in their passport, and so much love from so many people. Charlotte is very excited to be a big sister and we know she'll be great at it! She already loves to help and take care of her twin baby cousins.

OUR FAMILY

and traditions

Family means everything to us. We're both very close to our parents and check in with our moms daily. Both of our parents are still married and have shown us what a loving, supportive household looks like. Their hard work and dedication gave us the best childhoods, and now they're watching us pass those same values and traditions on to our children.

We each have one sister—Cory's runs her own private learning center, and Anthony's is an X-ray technician. We're very close with them, and both recently got married and are starting families of their own. We love being uncles and watching the cousin crew grow!

Charlotte loves visiting both sets of grandparents. In Florida, she fishes and swims with Cory's parents. In New Jersey, she explores the beaches and boardwalk with Anthony's.

EXPECTANT MOTHER

We cannot begin to imagine the decision you are facing during this time. We would feel so privileged to be a part of your life at whatever level you feel comfortable. We are excited to build this forever bond together and walk through this journey with you.

We are a couple who love deeply and find that possibilities are endless with one another. We are each other's biggest fans and most comfortable shoulders to cry on. Your child will always be loved and supported. They will have some pretty awesome grandparents, two amazing aunts and uncles, two twin boy cousins who just arrived to the family this fall (more on the way) and the most entertaining best friends. Your baby will learn to lead with compassion, unconditional love, and empathy. These qualities are so important to us. They will be protected, educated, well traveled, and to be honest, maybe a little spoiled at times!

From the small things like back-to-school shopping to the big things like a first trip to Disney World, we will relish every single moment. From learning to walk for the first time to driving a car, we will be there every step of the way. We are eager to connect with you and hope to gain a clearer picture and understanding of your hopes and dreams for your child.

With love,

Cory & Anthony
